

Special Religious Instruction

Religious Education classes will commence in Term 1 for students in Years 3-6. Information regarding these sessions is attached. Participation in classes is optional.

Parents have the choice for their child to attend either

- Christian Education classes supported by the Christian United Churches.
- Bahai classes
- Neither of the above -class work on school values will be organised for these students.

One option is selected and will be maintained for the entire semester. Students not attending SRE classes will be supervised by classroom teachers.
Please return the permission by the end of week 2.

Any questions or concerns please contact me.

Kind regards
Lynn Bright
